

Civil society mobilizing towards the 10th World Water Forum

Informative workshop

Dear participants of the Butterfly Effect and SIMAVI's informative workshop on the 10th World Water Forum,

We would like to warmly thank you for your participation! Thanks to you, civil society is well prepared to contribute and participate to the 10th World Water Forum and make the water sector evolve.

As discussed, you will find enclosed:

- The powerpoint presentation in English, French and Spanish
- The Butterfly Effect position papers (for the 9th World Water Forum and the UN 2023 Water Conference)

Please note that the recording of the workshop is available on ISW's and Butterfly Effect's social media, accessible here.

Call for contributions

The call for contribution is open until December 18th. You will find all the information here. We strongly encourage you to participate.

Reminder: each organization can submit maximum 5 contributions (case study, written contribution, speakers...) with 1 form per contribution.

Thematic Process: Form: Here Session Descriptions: Here

Regional Process: Form: Here Session Descriptions: Here

Objective: Ideally, there should be at least one contribution from civil society for each theme (and at best for each sub-theme).

To help us coordinate, please fill in this mapping document to help us identify which organization has contributed to which session.

Sponsorship mechanism: Strong mobilization of CSO's in this call for contributions will help us advocate for registration fees reduction and sponsorship mechanisms. When filling the form to contribute to the call for contributions, when asked about your participation in the Forum itself, answer "maybe" and add in the box ask for a financial support through a sponsorship mechanism.

Regional process

- The Mediterranean regional process is organized by the Mediterranean Water Institute (Institut Méditerranéen de l'Eau).

A Mediterranean Water Forum will be held in Tunis (Tunisia) from 5 to 7 February 2024, and will contribute to the 10th World Water Forum, under the theme “Together for shared water sobriety”.

Butterfly Effect NGO coalition

The Butterfly Effect (BE) is a coalition of +150 local and international NGOs and CSOs in the water sector, around the world that aims to promote effective local solutions to sustainably improve access to water and sanitation services, as well as water resources management with a long history and potential to bring civil society messages to the international level, facilitating dialogue and multiplying common messages among NGOs and CSOs around the world.

Our primary goal is to defend the water sector and guarantee access to drinking water and sanitation for the underprivileged (youth, women and indigenous people).

Every organization working in the water sector or related sector can become a Butterfly Effect’s member. You just have to fill in this form and all the applications are then reviewed by our steering committee.
